Mayor Sarto Fournier of Montreal was recently presented with a 600-year-old Japanese doll by Captain J. Kato, Master of the S.S. Takeshima Maru. The doll was a gift to the Mayor of Montreal from the Mayor of Tokyo to inaugurate the first direct steamship service from Japan to Eastern Canada since pre-war days. Looking on are Mrs. Fournier and L. J. Pattington of Federal Commerce and Navigation Co. Ltd., Canadian agents for Iino Line, owners of the S.S. Takeshima Maru

Countermeasures Being Taken by U.S. Radio Firms to Combat Flood of Japanese Transistor Sets

TOKYO.—Advances made recently by Japan-made transistor radios in the American market have jolted and alarmed American manufacturers.

Hokubei Mainichi reported that countermeasures are being taken by American makers against the import of Japanese transistor radios, and a committee has been formed to discuss over-all import policies.

Plans are being made to submit to the U.S. Government import regulations which will be tied in with national defense.

The fact cannot be denied that the number of Japanese transistor radios exported to the U.S. between April and November last year amounted to 927,000 a surprising increase compared with 73,000 exported during the same period of 1957.

Should this rate continue, it was expected that the figure would reach 2,000,000 this year, which is equivalent to 50% of the total production of American manufacturers. It is no wonder that American makers should be alarmed.

However, on the other hand, the fact is evidence of the rapid progress made by the Japanese industry.

Transistor radio plants are now fast growing, and in the field of radio, MT-tubes are being replaced by transistors.

Because of advances made in television, the production of MT-tubes has shown a marked rise, and over 50% of radios is being replaced by transistors.

Release Rock Hurler At Akihito Procession

TOKYO.—The Tokyo family affairs court this week released Kensetsu Nakayama, 19, who threw two stones at the coach of Crown Prince Akihito and Princess Michiko during their wedding day procession April 10. The court ordered the youth to be [illegible] under observation at his [illegible]. He was released on the grounds he is recuperating quickly from a state of split personality.

JCs Themselves Hinder Intergration States Vancouver Clergyman

VANCOUVER.—Sunday school is the key to integration for Vancouver's Japanese and Occidentals, stated the Vancouver Sun in reporting Rev. Tadashi Mitsui's opinion.

Mr. Mitsui ministers to the Issei and Nisei in the United Church's Columbia Street Mission at Sixth and Columbia.

"I don't think it's a good idea to segregate the Japanese," he says, "but for the present it is necessary for Japanese-speaking people."

The beginning of this month, Mr. Mitsui, who came with his wife from Japan only a year ago, started a Sunday School especially for Japanese children.

The first Sunday there were two children. Last Sunday there were 17, from pre-school age to 14 years. Classes are conducted by Grace Numba, Women's Missionary Society missionary among the Japanese here, and Mrs. Mitsui.

Two Languages

"Some of the children don't speak any English and some don't speak any Japanese, so we do everything in two languages, songs, story telling, teaching," says Mrs. Mitsui, who like he

Korea Warns Japan Will Come to Blows

TOKYO.—South Korea warned Japan it is prepared to use force to prevent repatriation of Koreans in Japan to Communist North Korea.

It was the strongest South Korean warning to date.

The North Koreans have proposed repatriating the Koreans in unarmed unescorted Soviet ships.

North Korea has offered jobs to any of the 600,000 Koreans in Japan who will come to the Communist-ruled area. Most of the Koreans in Japan are destitute and estimates of the number who want to go range between 43,000 and 117,000.

Tour of Botany Dept.

The Toronto Japanese Canadian Garden Club will meet at the University of Toronto, Department of Botany Greenhouse, College and University Avenue, on Sunday afternoon, June 14th, at 2:00 p.m. for a tour of the greenhouses. Members and their friends are cordially invited.

English-language Anxiously Learned by Japanese Through TV and Radio; Poor English Fail Students

TOKYO.—Radio and television stations throughout Japan now carry over 2,500 hours of foreign language programs weekly, according to an estimate by the Japan Broadcasting Corporation.

The Corporation itself devotes 2.5 hours of television time to its English conversation class. Another six hours of its radio time are devoted weekly to English, French, German, Spanish, Russian and Chinese. In addition there are the language lessons beamed to schools.

Many commercial privately-owned radio and television stations include popular language programs.

According to the Japan Broadcasting Corporation, the reason for the great demand for foreign language lessons is due to the need to communicate with the many nations with whom Japan trades.

University students are particularly anxious to learn English, and some universities in Japan regard English as so important that students are dropped if they fail in their English tests even if their marks are excellent in other subjects.

English is one of the most difficult of all foreign languages for the Japanese to master because of the construction differences and the use of many colloquialisms.

Radio lessons, and particularly TV lessons where the instructor is seen, produce best results for students in learning, the Japan Broadcasting Corporation said.

Sub-Committees of TJCCA Report Summer Activities

By SHIRLEY KIKUCHI

The offer of a set of Encyclopedia Canadiana as a gift from Toronto JCs to commemorate the wedding of Prince Akihito and Princess Michiko was officially accepted by the Imperial Household Agency, T. Umezuki, representing the Isseibu reported at the monthly meeting of the Toronto JCCA last Tuesday evening.

A letter of acceptance was received and the gift should be on its way within 10 days time he further reported. With news of Mr. I. Katagami, the new Japanese Consul for Toronto due to arrive here Thursday, June 11th to replace former Consul M. Endo, Umezuki's suggestion that the Toronto Chapter be represented upon his arrival was carried. The president, Stan Hiraki; vice-president, Mits Sumiya; and secretary, Nancy Takeuchi, were elected to represent the Chapter in the welcoming committee. The matter of a party to welcome the new Consul and his family was left in abeyance; details to be worked out by the Isseibu.

Reports of the following subcommittees were given by the chairmen of each group: Art, Picnic, Social and Softball.

The report of the picnic committee was in written form and distributed to all members. The date and location of this annual outing have now been set for July 5th, 1959 at Jim Rick's Park (same locale as last year). The price of admission is set at 75c for adults and 25c for children. As in other years, one bus will leave 415 Spadina Avenue at 11:30 a.m. Cost of fare to be 75c for adults and 50c for children. Parking for cars on the grounds itself will be 75c with no additional charge as to the number of occupants in each vehicle.

A tentative program was outlined which is subject to revisions. A new feature this year will be a Kite Contest. This contest to be open to a mixed group; age limit being 12 and under. The kites are to be made by the participants. However, advice can be given by adults, but physical as-

It's Great to be a Canadian?

Paris, France

It is only after one is away from Home for a while that one begins to think, how great, after all, it is to be a Canadian. It is not that Europe has begun to pall; on the contrary, it remains very much of a fairyland, a place where a swarm of contradictions is met face-to-face every day, and where the dark corners and bright lights exude the air of strangeness and wonder. Even as I look out, once again, from my room in Montparnasse into narrow, cluttered Rue Delambre, I suddenly become possessed with a hundred different images.

But suppose, for a moment, that you could change your nationality. I would not. I have never really been touched by the resounding trumpets of blood-red nationalism. I have never become excited by the question whether or not Canada requires a distinctive flag apart from the Union Jack. And if O Canada were to be played in theatres instead of God Save The Queen, I would still attempt to hurry out before it is played. I have noticed, too, that the English also try to avoid standing at attention to the Anthem whenever possible. These external rappings or symbols are really a bore; they do not matter one way or another. They do not stoke the fires of nationalism in me.

What matters, then, is the feeling that no matter how many times you stray away, you will either come come back to Canada or give it top place in your affections. This is not mere homesickness or sentimentality—I have been away long enough to overcome that. I will suggest, though, that the clear, beautiful music of Canada will not come across so strongly as when you find yourself physically remote from it.

Now that I am in Europe, however, it is difficult to define what holds people there or what attracts foreign visitors. What can there be about Canada that makes me proud and happy to be a citizen of it? Is there the same kind of shiver of delight that would overcome me, say, on first seeing Dieppe after a channel-crossing?

Dieppe! The very fishingboat-clogged basin exudes charm and wonder, and the sense that one is in a town whose cobble-stones and green, hanging hills once, so recently, reverberated with the bloody clash of ignorant armies. Old Fort York, near Toronto's waterfront, arouses no such echo of history in my veins. And from Dieppe's cliff-cloistered streets, there come the cries of all those porters in blue denims; over shop-windows gleam those blessedly French words, "Charcuterie" or "Boulangerie", so more satisfying than "Butcher" or "Bakery".

Indeed, a visitor's reactions to Canada might almost be entirely negative. I can see that the Englishman might be struck by the absence of narrow lanes and byways, castles and cathedrals and historic cities; a Frenchman by the shutterless windows; almost any European by the impossibility of finding a table in the sun at which to sip a glass of red wine. All Europeans will be startled by

Main Auto Gain Second Consecutive Win; Yamada Studios Notch First in Nisei Sunday League

By MITCH NISHIMURA

At Christie Pits, Main Auto Body scored their second win of the season by a score of 2-0 over the newly-sponsored Regent Press, formerly Giants, in an abbreviated 5-inning game of the Nisei Sunday League last Sunday.

Both teams played a hard-fought, commendable brand of ball until the fatal 5th inning when Main Auto started a rally with 2 successive singles by Sid Ikeda and Sam Matsuo. Three more scratch singles were racked up by Bobby Miwa, Mitch Nishimura and Jeep Seki to score the 2 runs to win the ballgame.

Main Auto's winning run was scored when, with the bases loaded, batter Nishimura's attempted bunt flucked, and popped up behind and beyond the reach of the Regent first baseman, Lefty Sasaki's glove.

Pitcher Sub Soki of Main Auto, who was in control throughout the 5 inning stint notched his 2nd win in as many games as he whiffed 9 Regents and allowed only 1 hit, that, a hard hit ball over the 3rd base bag by Regent shortstop Sumi Tomihiro.

Regent pitcher Vic Kitamura pitched 1 hit ball till the 4th inning and was relieved by Roy Tanaka, who with his assortment of stuff, didn't have his best day as he was tagged with the loss.

As was informed last Sunday, the Giants of past years have found a sponsor in Regent Press and will henceforth be under the name of Regent Press Ball Club.

Battery for Regent Press were Vic Kitamura, Roy Tanaka, Ed Hisaki and Kaz Nishimura.

Yamada Studios dropped the young Bussei club 3-1 for their 2nd loss in a row. Yamada's Stan Nishimura, normally an infielder, made his pitching debut this game and emerged successful as he fanned 10 Bussei boys while spacing 4 hits for his first win of the season.

Yamadas scored their first run in the 2nd inning when first baseman Tosh Hori was hit (?) by a pitched ball and ramped home on third baseman Herb Morino's double. Busseis in the following half had their best opportunity to score when they had two men on base thru successive singles by Min Nakamura and Garry Watte with two out. But Yamada pitcher Stan Nishimura made the next batter fly out to leave the runners to retire the side.

Yamada right-fielder, Gord Mori banged his first home-run of the season in the 6th. In the same inning, pitcher Nishimura singled and later scored on an error to give himself a 3-run cushion.

Busseis in their third half came back when S. Terishita singled home Mel Tsuji who got on base via a walk for their only run in the game.

Big hitters for Yamadas were veteran ballplayer Mac Oikawa with 2 for 4; Gord Mori with a single in addition to his home-run, and a driving double by Herb Morino. Bussei hits were divided among Bobby Nishikawa, N. Fujino, Min Nakamura and heavy hitting Garry Watte.

Bussei shortstop Fred Kotani and outfielder Bobby Nishikawa were standouts in this game as they came up with some fine plays to rob Yamada hitters.

The ladies consolation finals will be between Louise Baniel and Helen Iwasa. The reigning singles' "A" champs for the men and ladies are Ed Tsujimoto and Sue Iwasaki.

Karate Official States Sport Absolutely Safe

TOKYO.—A spokesman for the leading Karate organization in Japan claimed that Karate is an "absolutely safe" sport.

Masatomo Takagi executive secretary of the Japan Karate Association, said his organization was "duly approved by the education ministry" with expert teachers.

"We have stringent regulations that must be followed," Takagi said, "and we have never had a fatality."

He described the case of a reported death of a 20-year-old student in Kyoto on April 24 after a Karate workout as the first of its kind involving Karate.

Takagi said the student, Masaya Suzuki, of Wakayama City, was not connected with the Japan Karate Association.

The elderly golfer was crashing his way miserably around the course. Catching the look of contempt in his caddy's eyes, he apologized. "I'm not playing my usual game today."

"No sir," said the caddy. "And what game would that be?"

Named After Record Making U.S. Judoka

STOCKTON, Calif.—The Sgt. Dick Masuda chapter of the Stockton Judo Club has been organized at Eielson Air Force Base, Fairbanks, Alaska, according to word received here.

The branch has been formed by Dick Hayashi, a Stockton soldier at Eielson, and it is named in honor of Sgt. Masuda, a Stockton Nisei who was killed in action with the 442nd regimental combat team in Italy during World War II.

Masuda was an outstanding and also an expert in judo. In a scholar at Stockton High School San Francisco tournament he threw 13 opponents in order, until a draw on his 14th try stopped his winning streak. The record has not been surpassed.

Organizer Hayashi is a member of the Stockton Judo Club and presently serving with the combat infantry in Alaska. He has practiced judo for 26 years and holds a black belt rating.

△緊急失業對策事業が施行されて丁度十周年目に當る五月二十日、失對事業の實施に功績のある百二十名の人々が、東京千代田區の九段會館で倉石勞働大臣から榮えの表彰狀を授與されたが、このうちに東京都の新堀林榮課長もその一人に加わつている。

△新堀さんは『トロント市へ櫻の苗木を持つていくらちに誰が推せんしたのか、上の方で決めてくれたのかその邊の事情はよく分らないが、この私が表彰……』と戸惑うと同時に、長年都へ微力をつくしてきたこの老木に今一度美しい花が咲いた、と心から嬉しく感激の念で一杯ですと語つている。

△なお新堀さんは本社宛の手紙でハイ・パークの櫻苗木について次の如く書いている。

配植計畫については最も關心事で、ああした地形と既存樹木或は工作物等を無視して一應こうした配植でありたいものだと希望の圖面を作成して安齋逆治氏宛に送りましたので、市公園部の關係者にご助言願いたい。また持參できなかつた日本の代表、山櫻苗は今から心がけてご希望に添うよう努力します……。

コールドウエル マクドナルド 兩氏演說
六月九日マッセーホールで

オンタリオ州のシーシーエフでは六月十一日の州議會總選擧運動最後の大集會を六月九日(火)午后八時十五分からトロント市ヴイクトリア街一七八のマッセー・ホールにおいて開催する。演說會はシーシーエフの全國首領コールドウエル氏とオンタリオ州のリーダーで州議會の内外で目ざましい活躍をつづけているマクドーナルド氏で、トロント地域のシーシーエフ候補者全部を紹介する。シーシーエフでは州内殆どすべての選擧區に候補者を立てているが、トロント地區およびハミルトン、フオートウイリアム、ロンドン等、日系人の多い所の分は次の諸氏である。

●トロント(十三區を東から順次に記すと)――(ビーチエス)バロック(ウッドバイン)ブライデン(リヴアーデール)セオボルド(セントデビッド)マカーレ(セントジョージ)サミス(セントパトリック)ヒューレット(セントアンドリユウ)ロバートソン(ベルウーヅ)ルデイッシ(ブラコンデール)エルチャック(ドーヴアーコート)ブレナン(パークデール)ダレー(ハイパーク)テンプル(北に廻つて、エグリントン)イヌマン

投票權を有效に

◇六月十一日に行われるオンタリオ州議會の總選擧は、その日の來ぬ前から凡その結果は判りきつているという感じを與え、總選擧にたいする興味は低調のようである。

◇過去十五年間、政權の座についてきたフロスト首相の進歩保守黨は、この十年間のオンタリオの未曾有の發展と繁榮を吹聽し、病院保險などの社會福祉施設も加えて州民の幸福をはかつていると宣傳している。だが、オンタリオ州はカナダ第一の豊かな州で、州民全體の生活を引上げ、社會正義を思う存分に發揚する機會は、他の何れの州にもまして惠まれているのであり、カナダ自體の發展過程のなかでその中心ともなつているオンタリオ州が發展し繁榮するのは當り前の事である。餘程無能でないかぎり誰が政權を握つても、それはひとりでにそうなつて行くめぐり合せになつているのであつて、何も威張ることではあるまい。しかも、その繁榮のもとにあつて、失業者は增加し農家の平均收入は下り、庶民の住宅、學校、病院その他は不足し、市町村は重荷に苦しんでいるのはどうしたことか。しよせん、彼等の言う繁榮は金持のそれであつて庶民のそれにまでは公平に行きわたつていないのである。

◇惠まれた資源と地位を人民のために一層有効に使う計畫を立て、社會正義に根ざした理想を掲げてその實現のために、たゆまざる戰いを押し進めるシーシーエフ。私が所屬し支持するのはそれである(梅月生)

「砂川判決」は不當な裁判だ

最高裁に『上告趣意書』を提出して反ばく

【東京時事通信】東京地方檢察廳は東京地方裁判所の伊達裁判長がさきに行った砂川違憲判決に對し最高裁判所に跳躍上告をしていたが今週要旨次のような『上告趣意書』を最高裁に提出した。

一、原判決が刑事特別法第二條は憲法第三十一條に違反する無効な法律である點については、いずれの點からみても違憲とする理由はない。

一、原判決の見解は憲法第九條と憲法前文の解釋を誤つたものであるばかりでなく、憲法の精神を誤解したものである。

一、米國軍の駐留は、原判決のいうように憲法の精神にもとるどころか、むしろ憲法が建前とする平和主義と國際協調主義にそい、憲法の精神にもかなうものである。

一、原判決は條約を違憲と判決した點で、違憲審査權の範圍を越え、また條約中最も政治性の強い日米安全保障條約を違憲とした點で司法裁判所の裁判權の限界を越えた判斷をしていることになり、いずれの點からみても、原判決は明らかに不當な裁判といわなければならない。

一、日米安保條約の違憲か合憲かという問題は現在の複雑微妙な國際情勢下において、侵略の危機にさらされることをできるだけ避け國の安全を保持するためにとられる政府の措置に關する問題であるから、統治行爲に當り、司法裁判所の裁判權の限界を越える問題である。

晩市出身の古參議員を任命

【オタワ發】スミス外相の急死により、外相を兼任しているディフェンベーカー首相はいよいよ公共事業相ハワード・グリーン氏を外相に任命、親任式が今週おこなわれた。グリーン事業相は六十四才、晩市出身の辯護士で一九三五年以來の議員の古參者、自由黨政府のときは、保守黨の外交問題代辯者としてするどく政府に迫った人であるが、グリーン氏の外相任命によって現保守内閣は大きい人事異動が豫期され、チャーチル通産相が事業相に、ヒース運輸相が通産相になるのではないかと豫想されている

まじめな人物

【オタワ發】ハワード・グリーン新外相は事業相を今議會閉會まで兼任することになった。グリーン外相は、自由黨政府二十年間において、パトロンに要職を與えていた惡習慣を一掃、餘分の官吏は片っ端からクビにして、保守黨内からも不平の聲が出ているほど、まじめ一點張りの人物、外相になったので在外のカナダ外交官の費用削減を斷行するものとみられている。

今度は日本製ラジオ

カナダ業者苦情出す

△外國製のラジオが續々とカナダに流れ込んで、カナダのラジオ製造業者は『重大脅威』だと悲鳴をあげており、これら外國製ラジオの流入を防止してほしいと政府に要求している。外國製ラジオは今の調子でいけば年末までに、カナダ國內市場の五〇パーセントを占めることになるという。

△カナダに入る外國製ラジオは主に米國、日本、西ドイツ、オランダおよび英國からである。日本の對加輸出は一九五七年に六九、二三三セットであったのが、一九五八年には一五五、三二四セットにジャンプし、貿上額も五十八万八千八百二十七弗から百八十四万三千八百八十六弗と增加している。

△カナダ業者はとくに日本からの輸出品はとうてい安くて太刀討ちできないという苦情を政府當局に出しており、當局では今夏、ラジオ、テレビおよびエレクトロニック業界に影響するこれら輸入品の關稅について調査することになっている

ソ連北部の見學

カナダが專門家派遣を申入れ

【オタワ發】カナダ政府は、ソ連北極ケン内における大がかりな開發計畫を實地見學するため、カナダ專門家の同地區訪問許可をソ連に要請すると同時に、ソ連專門家のカナダ北極ケン内見學團も派遣するよう招待を發したが、まだソ連からはなんらの正式回答に接していないことをハミルトン北部開發相が今週議會で明らかにした。同相は『カナダとソ連がそれぞれの北極ケン內開發について見學團交換の申入れを行った。ソ連は北部開發を既に早くから開始しており、その事實を承認しなければなるまい』と語っている。ソ連の北緯六十度以北内の住民は五百万と推算されるのにくらべカナダはわずか三万人、北部開發においてはソ連は遙かに進んでいるので、カナダ專門家をソ連に派遣したいというわけである。

日米軍略家一騎討ち

映畫

△日本海軍のトップ軍略家山本五十六元帥と、米海軍の『海のブルドッグ』と異名ある軍略家ハルセー提督との太平洋大戰における一騎討ちを描く新映畫が目下ハリウッドで製作されている。物語はグアデルカナルにおけるハルセー提督が困難な作戰決定を行うことを中心としたものである。

△畫面をできるだけリアルにするため、山本元帥の副官であった後藤ジエームス氏が技術的擔當者となり、彼自身が山本元帥に扮する後藤ジエームス氏は目下加州工科大學航空氣動學部の留學生で、ハルセー提督にはジエームス・キャグニー氏が力演する。

岸さんの公邸前で切腹

お坊さんの小林秀雄氏(四二)が

【東京發】小林秀雄という四十二歳のお坊さんが、三日岸首相公邸前で、昔ながらの形式で見事に腹をたち切って絶命した事件があり、話題となっている。小林さんの遺書によると『自分は日本の再武裝、日米安保條約、核兵器の使用および米軍の沖縄占領に反對して切腹する覺悟である』とのことであるが、いくら日本が自殺者の多い國とはいえ、舊式な切腹とは珍らしいと街の話題になっているわけ

米加兩都市が共同でお祭り

【ウインザー發】川をへだてて米領とカナダ領になっている當市とデトロイト市民は、今年はじめて手をにぎり合い、兩市の七月祭りをいっしょに行うことを決定目下そのプランを練っている。兩市共同のお祭りは六月二十八日から七月四日までの一週間、カナダのドミニオン・デーや米國の獨立祭を互に祝い合おうというわけ。この週間は毎日各種の催しが行われることになっている。

空中より探鑛

オ州計畫

【オタワ發】どの國でも企てられたことのない一大空中ジ氣調査がオ州政府により北オ州六万平方マイルにわたり行われることになっている。この地域の廣さはマラヤよりも大きく、かかる大掛りの空中探鑛は世界でも最初のことと注目されている。オタワのヘリコプター會社が六カ月を費して、北オ州上空からかくれた鑛脈をみつけるもので、大体の目星をつけたのち、地上探鑛隊が實地調査する段取りになっているが、これに要するオ州政府の費用は四十万弗、オタワ政府が三十万弗を追加するが、この空中調査は一九七〇年までに全カナダに行う手始めとして業界は關心を深めている

日本に賣るには

値段の問題だ

【晩市發】日本の市場は擴大の一途をたどっているが、カナダの輸出業者はこの日本市場に進出しようとするならば、もっと價格の點について神經を使わなければいけないと、今週駐日カナダ大使館のバイパス商務官が晩市で語った。同官はオタワ外務省歐洲通商課長に榮轉するが、『日本の業者はカナダ人と同じで、値段さえ安ければいつでも話合に乘るのである』といい、米國や濠洲を相手に日本の市場に喰い入ろうとすれば値段で競爭せねばなるまいと警告した。

Marriages

The marriage of Joyce Eiko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Asazuma of Verdun, Montreal, P.Q., to Mr. Theodore Miyamoto, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Miyamoto of Maui, Hawaii, took place on May 30, 1959 in the Erskine and American United Church, Montreal with the Rev. N. M. Slaughter officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin fashioned on a princess line with a high draped bodice and lace insert; high bateau neckline and a draped cascading cathedral train caught at the waistline and embroidered in French lace and seed pearls. Her elbow length veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a headpiece of white roses. She carried a bride's prayer book of white orchids and streamers of white stephanotis.

Mrs. T. Watanabe of Toronto was matron-of-honor and the bridesmaids were Miss N. Miyamoto of Hawaii and Miss K. Kobayashi of Toronto. They wore gowns of plae blue crystalette fashioned on a trapeze silhouette with watteau pleated back and a draped bertha collar. Their headpieces were of matching blue crystalette and veiling.

The flower girls were Miss L. Watanabe of Point Claire and Miss J. Takeuchi of Verdun.

The bride's mother wore a gown of raspberry organza and pink Skinner's taffeta complemented by a corsage of pink orchids.

The bride, a graduate of Traphagen School of Fashion designed all gowns in New York.

The best man was Mr. James Nishizaka of Astonia, N.Y. Mr. Robert Neveu of New York City and Mr. Richard Edwards of Patchoque, N.Y. ushered at the ceremony.

After the reception at Victoria Hall, the couple left for a short motor trip south after which they will honeymoon in Hawaii. For travelling, the bride wore a dressmaker coat and black accessories. Upon their return from Hawaii, they will reside in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

The out-of-town guests were: From Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. T. Watanabe, Master R. Watanabe, Mr. Henry Edamura, Miss Shirley Kobayashi, Miss C. Collins and Mr. T. Kumano; from New York, Mr. James Nishizaka, Mr. Robert Neveu, Mr. Richard Edwards, Miss Karen Nakamura and Miss Mieko Kuromiya; from Massachusetts, Mr. Paul Dube; Los Angeles, Miss N. Miyamoto.

the annonymous face of Canadian life and manners. What scents what sounds, what quaintness of dress or manners or of architecture would ravish their senses? Most of all, they will be appalled by the paucity of artistic manifestations and traditions, unless they are there merely to sample the glimmering lakes and black pines of the North.

The last point, I think, would be the most damning. One never completely realizes how stunted and undeveloped is Canadian artistic activity until one goes abroad and looks back in frustration, What there of originality and audacity in developing Canada's most ambitious cultural exhibit, the annual Shakespeare Festival in Stratford, when actors and directors must be imported from England? What is Canadian about the Canadian National Exhibition when the Grandstand Show always needs an American comic or singer to headline the performances? But it is late in the day to go into any lengthy exegesis of this game of playing-it-safe that appears to be part of the Canadian character.

But out of the negativeness come the virtues. I have found out that to be a Canadian in Europe is a very positive thing indeed. Why? For one thing, we come over here without a highly developed sense of national superiority—or even of national character. The Englishman, on the other hand, would go to Canada or to the Continent carrying with him the old hopeless insularity, that registers everything English as the norm, or below it. He is, after all, English to the core; it permeates his being and his whole set of attitudes (prejudices?) and very little will change him. Thus he would not be inclined, for example, to sample Continental foods or learn new languages; he would yearn with all his being for mutton and Yorkshire pudding and his garden.

Is there, in the same way, such a thing as being Canadian to the core? Rather, we are taken to be an inoffensive, unassuming, soft-spoken, unaggressive people. Alone and palely loitering, open to influence and experience, we seem to be liked because of this. I do not think, by any means, that this is entirely true, but can you put your finger upon any trait that is definitely and uniquely Canadian.

I have found plenty of miserably ill-informed opinions about Americans when I was in England. It was almost enough to make one try to lose the Canadian accent in order not to be confused as a "Yank", a name which is so often related over here to the worse kind of arrogance and gracelessness. Of course, I must not be beastly to the Americans by holding only one side to the mirror. But it is true, though, that a visit to any large American city will confirm the idea that Americans—in particular the waiters and the porters so unsmiling and rough-hewn in manner—seldom sprinkle their questions and answers with pleases and thank yous. And the occasional sight of a silver monster of an American car—so tasteless and useless in these narrow European streets—makes one speculate in horror what new obscenity is to be unwrapped out of the cellophane to us. What is the point of it? What is all the show and energy for?

The main reason for my saying that it is great to be a Canadian is that if we have not yet acquired a national identity, perhaps that is all to the good. At least it means we have not acquired those traits of separatism and overbearing superiority that one sees in different countries. At least we are in the position of being able to develop what is good, and reject those patently bad national characteristics that we see in others. (For example, reject the English class system and the American direction of Organization Men and Lonely Crowds; acquire the apparently complete integration of French society).

In this way, it is not such a bad thing to be somewhat anonymous and regarded as uninteresting so long as we forge ahead with a great deal of curiosity and adventurousness. The future is as big and promising, as wild and lovely, as the flat expanse of prairie land and the towering Rockies, so full of infinite change and possibility. I have other reasons, of course, for being glad that I am a Canadian, but they have little to do with what I have just said.

Priest Commits Seppuku to Protest Rearmament

TOKYO.—A Buddhist priest committed hara-kiri, the traditional Japanese form of suicide, in front of Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi's official residence Wednesday. The event caused a stir in Japan.

A letter left by the priest, Hideo Kobayashi, 42, indicated that he had performed the act, which has rarely been recorded in recent years, as a protest against Japanese rearmament, the security treaty with the United States, the use of nuclear weapons and the U.S. occupation of Okinawa.

Hara-kiri, more formally known as seppuku, is a ritual suicide performed by slitting the stomach in the form of a cross and depositing the entrails in a bowl. It usually takes the victim about eight hours to die.

The suicide recalled traditions that have become archaic and subject to ridicule in the present generation. Although Japan has the highest suicide rate in the world, 24.2 to every 100,000 persons, more conventional methods of self-destruction have been used in most cases since the Second World War.

At one time, such an event would have been commonplace and would have earned praise, but the priest's act seems unlikely to be regarded as heroic by most Japanese today. More likely, he will be regarded as off his rocker. However, the incident illustrates the hold that tradition still exercises on the generation that has been schooled in older ways.

sistance will not be permitted. No metalic wires are to be used in construction or in flying the kite with measurements not exceeding more than two feet in any given dimension. Improvements on ground facilities have been made including a refreshment truck to cover the grounds at designated intervals.

Another added feature will be dancing from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. The possibility of obtaining a combo to provide part of the music is being looked into. It is also hoped to have the colorful and entertaining Japanese folk dancing that has been a feature of the TJCCA picnics in previous years. The next picnic committee meeting will be held on the 9th of June, 8:00 p.m. sharp at 415 Spadina Avenue.

The art committee headed by Agnes Shimono gave details with regard to the Art Exhibition to be held later this year. Tentative plans finalized, it is the expressed hope of the sub-committee to hold this in conjunction with the Toronto Japanese Canadian Garden Club which holds an annual flower and flower arrangement show each year. The date and times of the art exhibit, to this date, have not been decided upon with the feasibility of combining the two events pending discussion with Garden Club officials.

Plans are already underway for the Annual International Softball Tournament to be held in September on the Labor Day weekend. Chairman Liz Pearce has secured Fairbanks Memorial Park as the locale for this year's battle with the social for the players to be held at St. Peter's Parish Hall. Failing this, the social will be held at the Buddhist Hall It was felt that $1 should be charged for this social. A banquet to fete the ball players will be held on September 6th at China House, at 7:30 p.m. free to all players. However, any person wishing to attend this affair can do so at the nominal charge of $2.00 per. All social events are being handled by the social committee headed by chairmen Miss Denise Nishimura and Ace Shirakawa. Raffle tickets for the softball tournament will be out by the 25th of June and should be available at the TJCCA picnic.

The social committee reported plans and work underway for the Tournament Dance to be held at YMHA Auditorium on Saturday, September 5th. Revealed, also, was the obtaining of UNF Hall for the annual New Year's Dance to be held this year on January 1st. Details will follow at a much later date.

At the close of discussions, it was unanimously passed that the name of Mr. Harry Taba be added to the executive list. Executives in attendance at the June 2nd meeting were:

Misses: Janet Fujiwara, Eleanor Hirota, Mary Honkawa, Donna Ichii, Kathy Kawaguchi, Irene Matsushita, Denise Nishimura, Mary Sakaguchi, Agnes Shimono, Fumi Sasaki, Nancy Takeuchi, Fumi Yamamoto, Shirley Kikuchi; Mrs. Jane Iwamoto; Messers: Stan Hiraki, Roy Chiba, Roy Horikawa, Vic Kitagawa, Tak Sagara, Ace Shirakawa, Mits Sumiya, George Takahashi, Hideo Takasaki, Harry Taba, T. Umezuki and Jerry Kutsukake. Visitor was Mr. Aki Oda.

The next general meeting will be on Thursday, July 2nd at 415 Spadina Ave. All members are urged to attend this very important meeting. Visitors are welcomed.

Michener's Latest Book on 'Hawaii' Runs Some 800 Pages, Believes 'Most Ambitious' Effort

HONOLULU.—A new love story, entitled "Hawaii", running some 800 pages has just been written by James A. Michener, his 12th book, reports Robert Tuckman of the Honolulu Associated Press.

"I think it is the best thing I've done," says Michener.

"Certainly, it's the most ambitious thing I've ever done. I've been working on it for about three years.

"I started the final draft on May 1 of last year and I worked on it every day until last March 1, except for a trip I made to San Francisco for four days.

"It is a story how Polynesians, missionaries, Chinese and Japanese came to these islands and learned to live together side by side," he said.

"It has two climatic moments —on Pearl Harbor day, December 7, 1941, and in the elections here in 1954 when the Democrats for the first time in 56 years came into any kind of power.

Too Many Characters

"I doubt if it can be serialized or made into a movie. The caracters are too numerous and they change too fast.

"The underlying thread in the book is the Islands. They remain, and the people change.

"I think it is a major work, a real effort."

Michener, 52, wrote the book in a small office he maintains in the same eight-story apartment building at Waikiki where he lives with his attractive wife, the former Mari Sabusawa of Chicago.

"The purpose of the book is to explain why Hawaii is the wonderful place it is," he said.

"It deals with how people and ideas got here and how the people learned to live together in harmony.

"There are four families, and the book follows their fortunes."

husband, is bilingual.

Language is the chief obstacle between the Issei and integration, Mr. Mitsui points out.

"The problem of the Nisei is one of indifference to any religion," he adds. "They don't feel the necessity for Buddhism, nor are they interested in Christianity. But I think they feel if they are going to continue to live in this country it is necessary for their children to attend Sunday School.

"I'm thinking if local churches would visit every Japanese home to invite the children to Sunday School there would be splendid results."

There are some 2,000 Japanese living in Vancouver, Mr. Mitsui says.

It is not the Occidentals that stand in the way of their integration, he insists, but the Japanese themselves, who in addition to the language barrier, are "shy and reserved."

Still Mission

The Japanese moved into Columbia Street Mission church last February from First United, but are still a mission group of that church under direction of Rev. H. R. Ross.

The little church at Columbia and Sixth was originally built by the Women's Missionary Society for the Japanese during the Second World War, with Japanese evacuation from the coast, it became an Occidental community one. The community congregation continues to use it.

"We're trying to integrate here by sharing with the community congregation," Mr. Mitsui says. "We're a joint board that meets every three months and occasionally we have joint services.

"We had a joint communion service just after Easter and all enjoyed it.

"It was a tremendous success."
